JOB PRINTING.

Having connected with this office, we are prepared to execute all orders in this department with neatness and dispatch. We would respectfully ask merchants and all others who want

CARDS, CIRCULARS, PAMPHLETS, BLANKS, HANDBILLS, BILL-HEADS, TICKETS, PROGRAMMES, CATALOGUES, To give us a call. Our Job Type are of the most modern manufacture, and cannot fail to please all who may ever use with their patronage.

Farmers Look Here.

Mr. Daniel Rinehart, an enterprising farmer and stock grower of Washington township, by request of a number of his friends, will exhibit his excellent Devon bull, in Carrollton, on Saturday next, the 31st inst. This Bull took the premium last fall, at our county fair, and is a rare specimen of that excellent stock of cattle. We would have been glad if a like opportunity for exhibition had been presented this year; young Devon would doubtless have been No. 1, on the premium list. As no fair will be held this fall, as all no doubt have learned, and no opportunity for the exhibition of stock given, we hope all who are convenient to town, will come and take a peep at this fine animal. Mr. Rinehart spares no pains in securing the best breeds in the country, and he cannot be surpassed in his attention to rearing stock. His example is worth imitation by any farmer.

The Mails.

The Ohio Patriot, at New Lisbon, of last week (the 26th ult.) complains of the irregularity of the mail from this place thither. It says: "The mail from Carrollton, which carries our papers to Gavers, McKing's Mill, &c., has been failing too frequently to make it pleasant to our patrons and others interested. Several weeks ago it 'pegged out,' and came up missing last Saturday."

We wish this was the only failure. For the last two weeks no mail has gone from this place to Hammondville, usually known as the Wellville mail. We have heard repeated complaints in that direction recently, for the non-arrival of the Free Press. We would say to our patrons on that and the New Lisbon route, that our paper is regularly mailed and in readiness for the mail carrier, and any delay is not chargeable to us. We hope these irregularities will be immediately remedied. It is uncomfortable for us to learn that our readers do not regularly receive our paper. If these evils be not remedied elsewhere, we may be compelled to complain to the Department at Washington city.

WANTED

At this office, a smart, active, intelligent boy, between 14 and 15 years of age, to learn the printing business. To a boy who can read well, this is a good opportunity. None but industrious boys need inquire. For further particulars apply to the Foreman of this office.

Indian Entertainment.

Doc. N. E. Harris, will visit this place on Friday next, (November 2nd) with his great Indian entertainment, given under a pavilion seating 500 persons. The entertainment will consist of Indian ceremonies, songs, dances, &c., and the celebrated Bavarian Brass Band will be in attendance. Come all and see the performance. This may be the last chance for the year. For particulars see bills of the day.

Now Ye Fruit Dryers—Pitch In.—Messrs. Cummings & Couch are determined to buy Dried Fruit, and pay as high prices as they can and not do themselves injustice. They now give One Dollar per bushel for dried apples, and $1.25 for peaches. See advertisement.

New Goods.—We invite attention to the advertisement of 'Atkinson & Williams' in this week's paper. The Squire has been east a long time and replenished his stock of goods. Our friend Bob Williams is on hand like a thousand of bricks to accommodate the gents, and ladies in particular, who will no doubt find it convenient to call at the 'old stand,' immediately opposite the Court House.

Returned.—Mr. John Kuhn, of Washington township, in this county, who has been seeking a fortune in California for the past four years, returned last week in good health. We have not had the pleasure of seeing Mr. Kuhn since his return, but presume he has come from the land of Ophir with his pockets full of 'shiners,' as fortunately all have done who went from this county and returned.

Accident.—On last Monday afternoon, Mr. Eli Marshall, of Washington township, had one of his legs much injured by his team running away. The team was attached to a sled and in their flight ran astride of a stump, catching Mr. Marshall's leg, between it and the roller, smashing it severely. Our informant was not able to give us the extent of the injury.

Mr. Patton of our town, is at present employed in removing the old brick building on Main Street, formerly used by the Lutheran and German Reformed Congregations as their Church House. It was built in 1824, and has been but little used for the last few years. There has wrought material changes upon its once comely appearance.

Both these Congregations have new Church Houses in our town.

SCHOOLMASTER ABOARD.—The Salem 'Republican' furnishes the following: In the post office at this place, there is a poster, advertising a lost horse, which describes him thus in part: He has a fine figure, and a mild countenance shod all round. If any of our readers find such a horse he will remember that the subscriber is GENIUS OF THE WEST.—The October number of this excellent monthly is on our table. The Genius of the West is entirely an original Magazine of western literature, the only one of the kind west of the mountains; and of such a character as claims the patronage of every lover of literature. Price only one dollar per annum. Address W. T. Coggeshall, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Blackwood for October has arrived. Contents—North and Notes; Zedee a romance—part XI; The Baltic in 1855—Part II; Modern Light Literature—History; From Balaklava; Books for the Holidays; An old Contributor at the Sea-side; Centralization—a dialogue; The story of the Campaign. Part X, The British Reviews and Blackwood are re-published by L. Scott & Co., New York. Terms of subscription—Any one Review or Blackwood, $3 a year. Blackwood, and one Review—or any two Reviews, $5. The four Reviews and Blackwood, $10. Four copies to one address, $30.

ADVERTISERS.—We endorse the following, which we clip from the Ohio Patriot. Every day's experience proves it true:

"A Merchant that does not advertise because times are dull, does not understand his business. The best and most successful merchants are those who advertise most. The public are very apt to form their opinion of the enterprise and energy of a merchant from his advertisements. A drone who never advertises, or the timid spirited shop-keeper, who once or twice a year only calls attention to his stock and business, is very apt to find himself far behind his shrewd neighbor, who all the time has an advertisement in the paper."

BARNUM'S BABY SHOW.—Mr. Barnum's Baby Show at Cincinnati seems to have been a failure. He charges the failure upon the 'Commercial' and has used that paper for slandering his character—claiming damages at 10,000 dollars. What next?

The Pennsylvania Legislature, as it appears from the full returns, stands. Senate, Administration, 17; opposition 16—House, Administration 66; opposition 34. On joint ballot Administration, 83; opposition 50—majority 33.

At a late election in California, in Saguenay county, having 12,000 inhabitants, 14,000 votes were polled. In one parish containing but 400 inhabitants, the inspectors returned 4,000 votes! Good turn out this.

THE OLDEST ENGINEER.—Nathaniel Cummings, who runs the accommodation train between Waukegan and Chicago, Illinois, is said to be the oldest engineer in the United States, having driven the first locomotive placed on a railroad in this country.

PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM MEDILL GOVERNOR OF OHIO.

IN PURSUANCE OF AN USAGE, ESTABLISHED AND SUSTAINED BY THE usual recommendations of the General Assembly through a long series of years, and which usage has always found a sanction and cheerful acquiescence in the hearts of a grateful people, I, WILLIAM MEDILL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF OHIO, do by these presents, appoint and set apart THURSDAY, the TWENTY-SECOND DAY OF NOVEMBER NEXT, to be observed as a day of THANKSGIVING TO ALMIGHTY GOD, for the manifold blessings of the year which is about to close.

While war, with all its attending evils, has been convulsing the nation of the old world, and pestilence has been performing its work of death among a portion of our own brethren in the South, the people of Ohio have been graciously exempted from the desolating consequences of either.

The laws of the State have been duly respected; the national Union, in all its integrity and force, has been preserved; the fields of the husbandman have yielded an unusual abundance, and industry in all its channels, has been appropriately rewarded.

In view of these evidences of Divine goodness, I most earnestly recommend that the good people of Ohio suspend and lay aside all business, upon and during the day aforesaid, assemble at their usual place of worship, and return their hearty thanks to ALMIGHTY GOD, the Author of these and all other blessings we enjoy, and offer up their prayers for a continuance of the same.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of State of Ohio, at the city of Columbus, this twenty-second day of October, A. D. 1855, and in the eighth year of the Independence of the United States.

WILLIAM MEDILL,

By the Governor: WILLIAM TRIVITT, Sec'y of State.

MARRIED.

On the 11th ult., by Rev. George Gaumer, Mr. Manerhan, and Miss Margaret Meister, of this place.

On the 6th ult., by James Hyett, Esq., Mr. Josiah Westfall, to Miss Frances Eden, all of this county.

On the 18th ult., by the same, Mr. Mahlon Bost, to Miss Jane Beans, all of this county.

On the 25th ult., by the same, Mr. William Ward and Miss Jane McClintock.

On the 27th ult., by the same, Mr. John H. Herrington and Miss Mary E. Carr.

The last named, Miss Mary, was one of those who, in her joy, did not forget the printer. Many thanks, Mary, and may your shadow never grow less.

On the 22nd ult., by Rev. D. M. Wiands, of Dover, Tuscarawas county, Mr. Matthias Waggoner to Miss Mary Ann Lawler, both of this county.

And on Tuesday morning last, we saw them on their way for the cars, en route for Wisconsin. May long life and bright success attend them, is our prayer.

October 25, by Rev. A. Swaney, at his own residence, Mr. Isaac Uman, to Miss Matilda J. Whitcraft, all of this place.

The donation sent to the printer, was duly received, quoted, massaged and digested, with the greatest ease imaginable. While our devil was exulting over the occasion, we were startled with the rumor that our worthy broomstick (groom) had been lodged in the county jail. We can only give utterance to our feelings in the following lines:

No Miss Matilda has really been married. What a number of hearts it will break! There's Sir Isaac, Sir James, and Sir Harry, They're dying of love for her sake.

Tha's a match that we all most approve, Let the gamins say all that they can; For indeed she's a charming woman— And he's a most sensible man.

DIED.

From the Columbians, Co. Republican.

At Richfield, Keokuk county, Iowa, Oct. 12th, of Typhoid Fever, Mrs. Caroline A. Thompson, wife of Thomas Thompson, late of Carrollton, O., in the 34th year of her age.

The subject of the above notice, was the eldest sister of the Editor of this paper. Early last spring, in company with her husband and her three small children, she left her friends and all the early associations of youth, in the enjoyment of good health and buoyant spirits, for a home in the West, and among strangers. She found that home—was all her heart could desire, but ah, how much sooner than she or we expected, she also found a grave. Sister, rest calmly there. Thou hast seen the last of earth. Thou hast experienced many of its joys, and hast also felt its sorrows. Although it was thy lot to fall a stranger, in a strange land, where but few who were near and dear to thee, were permitted to drop a tear over thy early tomb, yet they have the consolation to know, that as you knew your duty here, you strove to perform it, and will therefore receive the reward of the faithful.

"Friend after friend departs, Who has not lost a friend? There is no union here of hearts, That finds not here an end."

At the residence of his son, Joseph M. Gould, of this place, on Saturday evening, the 27th ult., of Dropsy, Mr. Robert Gould, in the 80th year of his age.

Mr. Gould was one of the oldest citizens of our town—an honest, upright man, in all his business transactions—an industrious mechanic, and a quiet, inoffensive citizen. He leaves a large circle of friends to mourn his departure.

New Special Notices.

Dr. Hoodland's German Bitters.—This celebrated medicine is one of the very best in the country, and its good qualities only need to be known, to give it precedence over all others now in use. We have seen its good effects lately, after the total failure of many others, in our knowledge, and we feel it a duty to recommend the Bitter to the notice of our friends. The genuine is prepared by D. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia.
